Weekly Times

THURSDAY, FEBURARY 1 1872.

THE WAYS OF THE HOOSIERS. They have queer ways of doing things Indiana. An Indianapolis newspaper says prayer by the Rev. Emsly Hamilton... whisky gauger for the Sixteenth District."

A GOOD PRICE. The Chicago papers tell us that the price money enough to buy them with, and know amended by the Senate Committee, and would paid by St. Paul's (Universalist) Society for they wouldn't accept it if we had, we think probably by reported at an early day. It their new church site on Michigan avenue, near Sixteenth street, was $400 per foot. The frontage is 129 feet, making the total cost-but as you have been going to school examinations for a week or more, you can easily figure it up for yourself.

NONE OF TRAT The Council Bluff's Nonpareil has torial headed "LET HIM RUILD, ARSO." Now we want that thing stopped. We have survived the Latin of the Leavenworth Commercial, and the Choctaw of the Wyandotte Gazette, but if you intend to come a us with that language, we'll have to give up the struggle.

The report has been very widely circulated that Horses Greeley peremptorily refused to sign the call for the Republican National

While the Republicans of Kansas are endesvoring to ferret out corruptions with which certain of their party friends are charged, the only journal in the State that attempts to white-wash the parties implicated or apologize for the corruptions alleged is the leading organ of the Democratic party of Kansas-the Leavenworth Commercial. This is the most suspicious circumstance of the whole affair.

Col. Snoddy denounced the Leavenworth papers as being subsidized in the interest of Caldwell, and said that their reporters had Col. Snoddy will please except THE TIMES from the list of subsidized papers, or stand convicted of wilful misrepresentation. He knows THE TIMES is owned by D. R. Anthony, and as free as the wind from all outside influences or entangling alliances. A SERIOUS BLOW.

Jayhawker Jennison, who has grown coop-shouldered in carrying off plunder, IN THE NAME OF LIBERTY, proclaimed the virtues of Caldwell.—Kansus City Times.

We listened to Jennison's speech, and the universal remark was made by all who heard him, that it was more damaging to Caldwell than all else that was said. No man can afford to be defended by a convicted gambler and thief.

SOMETHING TANGIBLE.

"Reform," which is too often a mere chimera, is taking tangible shape in Chicago, where an Alderman, for accepting a bribe of one hundred and fifty dollars, has been fined one hundred dollars, expelled from office, months. The reform movement, which originally appeared above the sea of Tammany, and seemed at first no bigger than a man's hand, is rapidly spreading out, and promises to soon cover the whole political sky. And to this, all good men will say amen.

COUNTY TAX.

The county tax levy, for the coming year, The county tax levy, for the coming year, and the sum shines upon, and would have been taken long ago, if they had been in open market, but the Government wisely re-

Again, and for the third time, Congress G. Aiken, of Guilford, Wilson county. He fixed at two for each representative district has agreed upon a basis of representation un- was a brother to Henry C. Aiken, Esq., of with two alternates. politicians in this propinquity may now lay County Commissioners of Wilson county. saide their Congressional aspirations, for this Mr. A. was one of the pioneers of Kansas, basis figures Leavenworth out, and leaves the matter to John Martin and Jake Stotler. coming to the State in 1869, and always As we may have occasion to need the services | merits of character. of these gentlemen during their term at

THE LABOR COMMISSION Washington in aid of some purely disinter-We noted the fact a few days ago, that Mr. ested scheme for the public good, and haven't Hoar's Labor Commission Bill had been money enough to buy them with, and know amended by the Senate Committee, and would it merely a matter of prudence to take time seems now that the committee have agreed by the foretop, and say a good word for to report the bill to the Senate, with amendthem. As gentlemen of great and unassum-ing modesty, brilliant intellectual attain-ments, and habits of indomitable industry,

When the bill to the Senaie, with amend-ments, to-day or to-morrow, and it will prob-ably be passed without much opposition.

When the bill comes back to the House, Mr.

Jake; both are liberally endowed with a pre-ponderating allowance of that organ in com-parison with which Josh Billings says ly elegant convolutions, in the abdomen—and in this particular, impartial justice would

Mr. J. C. Briggs, one of our most prom nent citizens has completed arrangements new laws as possible.

and gentlemen's furnishing goods house will The withdrawal of the well known firm of Stettaeur & Einstein, has left a splendid the members of the Leavenworth County chance for enterprise, capital and pluck; our Legislative Delegation. citizens have not been slow to avail them-with several of our business men and capi talists, by which a large wholesale clothing success. We are perfectly well acquainted with the gentlemen composing the rest of the firm, and know them to be reliable and

KANSAS LAWS

John Dressler, of Rochester, Penn., write

THE TIMES for information about Kan

Anywhere in the western or southern portions of the State Mr. Dressler will find lands for as, and says:

be established in our city.

selves of the opportunity, and we predict for Mr. Briggs and his enterprising aesociates Mr. Briggs is well known in our community as an energetic salesman, connected with ture to say that he is about the best known ousiness man in our State, and his name at the head of the new firm is a complete warrant for enterprise, integrity, promptness and tories be made from citizens of the same. contented if Mr. Sumner's bill fails to pass, three-fourths of such officers were from without the President's reobtain them, and where it is healthy and out the Territories; and, while the adminisnomination. Besides these factions a leading productive,—as I am expecting to emigrate tration had been evidently more careful than German politician, who has just been travel-there with jerhaps twenty or thirty of my any previous one in making its selections, ing in the West, and who is favorable to there were many reasons why the people of Grant, declares Schurz has made great prothe Territories would much prefer to have gress in disaffecting the German republicans himself and his friends, which are to be ob-him, and ridiculed his precedents and content him as this books. He said it was an insult to the acting that his precedents and content to read from "the common law of England," and declared that "if we were compelled to take any of the target that the same yard maple of everything for writer, table to the same of the said of a deputy, with its of a depotium. He said that the same yard maple of the said of a deputy, with its of a depotium of the said of a deputy, with its of a depotium of the said of a deputy, with its of a depotium of the said of a deputy, with its of a depotium of the said of a deputy, with its of a depotium of the said of a deputy, with its of a depotium of the said of a deputy, with its of a depotium of the said of a deputy, with its of a depotium of the said of a deputy, with its of a depotium of a deputy due to the said of a deputy with its of a depotium of the said of a deputy with its of a depotium of the said of a deputy with its of a depotium of the said of a deputy with its of a depotium of the said of a deputy with its of a depotium of a deputy with its of a depotium of a deputy with its of a depotium of the said of a deputy with its of a depotium of a depotium of a depotium of a depotium of a deputy with its of a depotium of a depotium of a deputy with its of a depotium of a depoti der the census taken some years ago. This this city. Mr. Aiken was a man of large Mr. Stotler offered the following reso time Kansas gets but two members instead of business experience, was proprietor of a tion, which was unanimously adopted: three as heretofore reckoned. Ambitious flouring mill, and Chairman of the Board of Resolted, That this committee recommen Resolved, That this committee recommend to the State Convention that that body admi no proxies in the conventior.

OUR CARDIDATES FOR CONGRESS. WE regret to learn of the death of Carlos of delegates in the State Convention was

On motion the Chairman and Secreta were instructed to draft and publish the call for the convention in accordance with the proceedings of this meeting, and recomme that the districts elect their delegates and alernates on Saturasy, February 17th, 1872. D. R. ANTHONY, Chairman.

J. R. HALLOWELL, Sec. pro. tem. Topena, Jan. 24th, 1872.

REPAID SPECULATIONS. It is well known to everybody in the U It is well known to everybody in the Uni-atreets was split open—now here, now the ded States, and to all the reading people in ments, and habits of indomitable industry, they are both very much alike—especially Jake; both are liberally endowed with a prepared, and which requires ponderating allowance of that organ in comparison with which Josh Billings says "brains is nothing," and which performs its natural and necessary, though not superlatively elegant convolutions, in the abdomen—and poleworthy that the journal referred to, in in this particular, impartial justice would require us to say, especially Jake. Both have periodic longings in this direction, but like many a bride of three months, don't know what ails them; both write for the Kansus Magazine, and—when they are nominated we shall say more for them. Other papers will please take notice that we are in feet on the strength of the service of them to indefinitely postponed. We don't know what all these bills were, but there can be little doubt that hone of the service of the service of them so its issue of Sunday morning last, tells us that everything points to the probable acceptance by the Democrats and revenue reformers of Lyman Trumbull as the coalition candidate for the Presidency. Mr. Trumbull's Sensition of the House of Representatives, reported by the Democrats and revenue reformers of Lyman Trumbull as the coalition candidate for the Presidency. Mr. Trumbull's Sensition of the House of the House of Representatives, reported by the Democrats and revenue reformers of Lyman Trumbull as the coalition candidate for the Presidency. Mr. Trumbull's Sensition of the House of the House of Representatives, reported by the Democrats and revenue reformers of Lyman Trumbull as the coalition candidate for the Presidency. Mr. Trumbull's Sensition of the House of the House of Representatives, reported by the Democrats and revenue reformers of Lyman Trumbull as the coalition candidate for the Presidency. Mr. Trumbull's Sensition of the House of t that Horace Greeley peremptorily refused to sign the call for the Republican National Convention, to be held in Philadelphia on first on these things.

Convention, to be held in Philadelphia on first on these things.

P.S.—Lest the last remark, which seems to have been a mistake, at least he has written to have his name appended to the call. He says he stayed away from the last meeting of the committee in order to preserve his independence.

Two of our own Representatives, Marchand and Fenlon, are on this committee. Two of our own this committee, and Jake, but the other things referred to.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.

Mr. J. C. Brisses, one of our most promisition of the sign that the start of the stayed of the Provinging the sign that the start of the start of the succession will create such a brittle doubt that hundreds of thousands of dollars will be scramble as to make a re-election uncertain, hundreds of thousands of dollars will to scramble as to make a re-election uncertain. The Republicans admit that the Illinois Sentate would be one of the most formidable of the most of our own Representatives, Marchand and Fenlon, are on this committee. Our people will thank them for this wholes are mistake, at least the has written to have to admit of a misinterpretation, should be one of the most formidable of the Radicals against Grant. Western rails road interests, identified with the great lines from Chicago westward through Iowa to Omalm, and, probably, the Union Pacific interests also, are hard at work, putting one of their attorneys, Hon. James F. Wilson, of their attorneys, Hon. James F. Wilson, of their attorneys, Hon. James F. Wilson, of the Republicans admit that the Illinois Sentate the mercy of the Almighty. The losses are not yet known accurately, but everything is first on these things.

Two of our own Representatives, Marchand and Fenlon, are on this committee. Our people will thank them for this wholes are not yet known as found that the Illinois Sentation would be one of the most formidable of the Radicals a much. It is an expensive luxury, and we have a possible of the state of their attorneys. Hon, James P. Wilson, of their attorneys, Hon, James P. Wilson, at the large part of the property of the prop the firm of Stettaeur & Einstein. We ven- legislative experience, and is ready and sure to nominate Presidential candidates honest.

We understand from Mr. Briggs that they will be fully prepared to commence business on or before the first day of March next. Success to you, gentlemen.

Language that they who is not at present in Washington. They were formally presented by a delegation from Massachusetts. Besides this Convention, it is declared that the temperature on the Success to you, gentlemen.

Eastern States will not be largely represented by the town called Oran, being situated near Jujuy, which is on the Bolivian border, and not in Salta, the province immediately south of it. Oran is, or rather was, a small place on the Vermeja, close to the borders of Bolivian will either unite with the labor men, or, what is more likely, nomination, within which, indeed, it is placed by the delegates, requesting that hereafter the appointment of federal officers in the Territat the colored vote will be thoroughly dis-Mr. Claggett stated that at present quite and may render only lukewarm support, or laid out and watered. The chief produce at Washington, which has been only partially reported by the telegraph, contains some points which are of interest as showing the animus of the leading advocates of the suffrage movement. During the session of the convention on Thursday last, Miss Susan B. Anthony was called out, and made a speech, of which the following is a rerbatim extract:

Some one says I am mad. Victoria Woodbull was used last night, but she did Selection of the select

-Mr. Grau has failed to get the pusion players of Ober-Ammergan to come : New York.

thocho-Disappearance of the Whole Town in Ten Seconds-All the In--Miss Alice Pillie, an American girl, has The Buence Ayres Standard of the 30th o November, given further intelligence than that reported by telegraph of the late dissections earthquake at Salta. On the 24th of October, at 11 o'clock at night, when most of the inhabitants of the doomed town of Oran had retired to their houses, the first shock —We should judge, from our exchant one of our best and worst men is which his name is Fisk. -Nillson has made a prin had retired to their houses, the first shock was felt. The greatest terror at once prevailed, and the people rushed madly into the streets; few had gone to bed, as for hours before a dull, rumbling noise had been heard in the distance, and all feared that it portended some unusual calamity. The shocks continued at intervals for nearly nine hours, during which time forty distinct movements of the earth were felt. The pavement of the streets was split open—now here, now there The following notice is prominently posted in the Astor House restaurant in New York: 'Oysters chloroformed and opened a la Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.' year must be a cheerful one to proof-readers, who are paid for reading Mayor's inaugurals Governors' messages, reports of hospitals

—A pocket-book anatcher got away with $85 the other day, in Brondwoy. The lady from whom it was stolen sought to enlist a policeman in pursuit of the thief, and was told that "it served her right for carrying her portmonaie in her hand."

—A man in Danbury, Conn., heard that a powder fried in lard was good for boils. He tried to cook the mixture, and his boils are effectually cured, and the house has been repaired so that it is almost as good as new. "ORAN, Oct. 23-8:30 p. m. The Chicago Post says: "Ninety two wives in different sections of the city are preparing to lie in wait for saloon-keepers after the law goes into effect. They declare it will be as good as a pension 'for the chilthren."

Oclock. the final vete is not to be tall till Tuesday.

A resolution to adjourn to Monday lost.

The Apportionment bill was taken up the Senate went into executive session.

—An Illinois somnambulist was rescued just as she was about to walk off from a sleeping-car platform in full motion. -The New Orleans Times thinks Alexis should not be allowed to leave America without being shown the Lousiana Legisla —A crusty old batchelor says that "love is a wretched business, consisting of a little sighing, a little crying, a little dying, and a great deal of lying."

Mr. Hoar continued at length and appealed to the Government, whose States were unfortunate in regard to illiteracy, to join in the attempt to remedy the evil.

Mr. Eurchard supported the bill, though the favored some modification.

Olive Logan's very sick,
Jay Gould has got the measels,
Ed. Stoke's ain't brought to trial
Pop go the weasels.

would have done it too."

—An old traveler tells a pretty tough story about being lost in the woods with his dog, where he cauld get nothing to eat, and had to cut off the dog's tail, which he boiled for himself, and afterwards gave the dog the bone. We would rather borrow a hundred dollars than believe that story.

firmed the statement.

Mr. Butler, of Massachusetts, and Mr. Hale, of Maine, made remarks confirmatory of the statement.

Adjourned.

SENATE. -The Kennebec Journal says a little six-

WASHINGTON.

CONGRESSIONAL

SENATE. WASHINGTON, Jan. 25. Mr. Harlan presented a memorial of the octaw Indians protesting against the estab-hment of a Territorial government in the

Mr. Sawyer presented resolutions of the outh Carolina Legislature, instructing the enators to vote for the supplementary Senators to vote for the supplementary civil rights bill.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill to prohibit the importation of the South Sea Islanders by American citizens, and said that a slave ade had recently sprung up in these islands. The forenoon hour expiring, the Amnesty bill came up, and Mr. Merrill, of Maine, addressed the Senate at length in favor of the bill, and in opposition to Sumner's ution making it include the Senatorial election of 1867, which amendment was adopted by a large majority. The vote on the adop

Mr. Flansgan followed. He said he was in favor of the Amnesty bill, and also the amendment; but there were men in the South for whose relief he would not vote— Jefferson Davis, for instance. He criticized Horace Greeley for going bail for Davis, and announced his own belief in the good old doctrine that "Americans should rule

America."

Finally the Amnesty bill was postponed and made a special order for Monday at 1 o'clock, the final vote is not to be taken

The Apportionment bill was taken up and the Senate went into executive session, and soon after adjourned.

After the introduction of several petitio up and Mr. Hoar spoke thereon.
Mr. Hoar continued at length and

Pop go the weasels.

—An Oregon peper says: "John B. Peak ran off with a Benton county girl and married her, for which he was prosecuted in the Committee of Ways and Meuns had been assured by the Secretary of the Interior that fully one-fourth of the pensions now paid were frauds. He had been so startled by such an extraordinary statement that he had written to the Commissioner of Pensions, who confirmed the statement. firmed the statement.

Mr. Butler, of Massachusetts, and Mr.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26,

The National Female Suffrage Convention at Washington, which has been only partially reported by the telegraph of the caten wherever the caten where the caten wherever the caten where the caten whe Mr. Schurz moved an amendment providing that Congress don't adjourn without passing the civil service reform law. Rejected 32 to 16.

for the reason, as he stated a terwards, to move that the Senate of the United States Le ner's, providing that no adjournment shall take place till after the passage of the sup-plementary civil rights bill.

Mr. Trumbull moved an amendment to TOPERA.

Mr. Clarke, of Franklin County, charged at prominent witnesses had already left he State, and others were preparing to

The Senate killed the bill to postpone the

The work of bringing witnesses before th

Mr. Kellogg made a strong speech in fa-

[Associated Press Distratch.]

Topeka, Jan. 74.—The Senate to-day of ated the House bill extending the time i

The question came up on a motion to con original resolution, calling for an Investiga-tion Committee, and moved to non-concur-

Mr. Clarke, of Franklin, ommittee wili commence at once.

vor of Caldwell.

The concurrence of the Senate was probably pass the House.

The Senate adjourned until

The Senate adjourned until Tuesday morning.

The Bill to Postpone the Tax Penalty Killed.

[Special Dispatch to .ux Times.]

Topeka, Jan. 24.

The afternoon session was chiefly occupied in debating the Senatorial Investigation resolution. Foreible and eloquent speeches were made by Gov. Robinson, Fenlon and Hutchison.

The Senate adjourned until Tuesday morning.

The House, on the third reading, passed the University appropriation bill, 66 to 9 in a thin House. Efforts were made to cut the appropriation down to $30,000 but this received few votes.

The House was in Committee of the Whole most of the attennoon on the bill to appropriate $76,000 to the Penientiary for the ensuing year. Its passage was recommended.

The House, on the third reading, passed the University appropriation bill, 66 to 9 in a thin House. Efforts were made to cut the appropriation down to $30,000 but this received few votes.

The House was in Committee of the Whole most of the attennoon on the bill to appropriate $76,000 to the Penientiary for the ensuing year. Its passage was recommended.

The House, on the third reading, passed the University appropriation bill, 66 to 9 in a thin House. Efforts were made to cut the appropriation down to $30,000 but this received few votes.

The House, on the third reading, passed the University appropriation bill, 66 to 9 in a third House. Efforts were made to cut the appropriation down to $30,000 but this received few votes.

The House on the University appropriation bill, 66 to 9 in a third House. Efforts were made to cut the appropriation of the House was in Committee of the Whole most of the Envis appropriate $76,000 to the Penientiary for the ensuing year. Its passage was recommended.

The House of the University appropriation bill, 66 to 9 in a third House. Efforts were made to cut the appropriate $76,000 to the Penientiary for the ensuing year. Its passage was recommended.

at the next election. This bill side or are now in Topeks, and that one in Leavenworth.

SAN FRANCISCO.

An Exciting Scene at the Japanes

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25. — Near the close of the Japanese banquet, a remarkable scene occurred. Ex-Governor Haight, in responding to the sentiment, "The State of California warmly welcomed the embassy," said God had made of one blood all men the

The Senate killed the bill to postpone the tax penalty.

The Republican State Central Committee has agreed to hold the Convention in Lawrence, on February 21st. The representation consists of two delegates from each Representative District.

Many prominent Republicans are at the Tefft House.

The Amendment to the Investigation Resolution Concurred in.

A Severe Slash at Newspaper Reporters

Topeka, Jan. 25.

The Senate this afternoon concurred in the House amendment to the Senatorial investigation is anomalous while we are here tonight wooing the cammerce of the old empire. Your Governor (pointing to Gov. Booth) as a representative of one political party, and ex-Gov. Haight, as a representative of the other and opposite party, are House amendment to the Senatorial investigation resolution. A sharp debate ensued, in which the special corresdondents of The Leavenworth Times and St. Louis Democrat, were severely slashed and charged with endeavoring to misrepresent the motives and endeavoring the misrepresent the motives and endeavoring the misrepresent the motives and endeavoring the misrepresent the motives and endeavoring the misrepresent the motives and endeavoring the misrepresent the motives and endeavoring the misrepresent the motives and endeavoring the misrepresent the motives and endeavoring the misrepresent the motives and endeavoring the misrepresent the motives and endeavoring the misrepresent the motives and endeavoring the misrepresent the motives and endeavoring the misrepresent the misrepresent the motives a conduct of several Senators.

The House discussed the University appropriation nearly all the afternoon, and recommended its passage.

The House Senatorial Investigation Committee appointed by Speaker Cobb this afternoon, gives universal satisfaction among the members who advocate a thorough investigation.

The House discussed the University appropriation nearly all the afternoon, and recommended its passage.

The House Senatorial Investigation Committee appointed by Speaker Cobb this afternoon, gives universal satisfaction among the members who advocate a thorough investigation.

Gov. Booth arose in evident excitement, saying, when he had become accustomed to such excathedra denunciations, he would probably like them: and after a few more probably like them; and after a few more words went on with the regular tossis. The incident is regarded as significant, and as calling for a change in public opinion.

NEW YORK.

Stokes Arraigned to Plead. A House Bill Defeated—A Lively Time on the Investigation Committee— Meeting of the Republican State Central Committee. New York, Jan. 24.-Stokes was raigned to plead to the charge of the murder of Fisk, in the Over and Terminer Court, this morning, but a postponment was had, owing to the illness of Judge Ingraham, the case being adjourned until Monday. No one was allowed to leave the court room. he ten per cent. penalty attaching for the con-payment of taxes.

In the afternoon resolutions instructing No one was allowed to leave the court room until Stokes had been gone some ten min-utes. Stokes said yesterday that he had the strongest case in his favor ever known, and that he had no sears of the result of his trial.

In the afternoon resolutions instructing our Senators in Congress to vote for Sumner's proposed change in the Constitution, in favor of the one term principle, were debated at length, nearly every Senator airing himself. The resolutions were finally deteated, by a vote of 7 to 17.

The House to-day went over the same ground that the Senate did yesterday, on the question of appointing a committee to investigate the alleged frauds in the Senatorial election last winter.

Demanded their Wages.

cur in the Senate amendment, which, it will be recollected, was simply to strike out the preambles and since the collected of mand their wages. They have not

New York, Jan. 25.-The Croton aqui

New York, Jan. 26.-Gen. W. Watsor a Williamsburg hair dresser, was shot dead in his own establishment to-day, by Mrs.

requested to investigate the alleged charges.

The ballopened soon after the opening of the session in the morning, and it was kept up until nearly the hour of adjournment tonight. All kinds of amendments were inbeen in the habit of insulting her, and ac-cusing her of unfaithfulness to her hus-band.

band.

The Turf Board of Appeals have decided that the Goldsmith Maid is entitled to a record of 2:17 at Milwaukee.

A deputation of prominent Fenians attempted to interview Comptroller Green today on the subject of discharging so many Irish laborers.

The first deposit was made by Mace which O'Baldwin is asked to cover, to fight for $2,500 a side and the championship of the world.

The Evening News says that the store

ST. LOUIS.

Sr. Louis, Jan. 26.—As the passenger train on the North Mo. Railroad due here about 7 o'clock this morning, reached a point between Bridgeton and Graham, fourteen miles from here, a rail broke in six pieces under the locomotive. The baggare and smoking cars went down an embankment fifteen feet high, and the ladies' car slid half way down but without turning over way down but without turning over.
Dan. Riley, a brakesman, was very badly bruised about the head and legs by trunks, bruised about the head and legs by trunks, and several passengers in the smoking car were severely bruised and cut, and one or two had ribs broken, but none fatally in-jured. The smoking and baggage cars are wrecked. Suit Withdraws-The Duke's Way Sr. Louis, Jan. 25.—It will be recollected Sr. Louis, Jan. 25.—It will be recollected that last summer Logan D. Pameron, a prominent and wealthy citizen of this city, and President of the Southwestern Book and Publishing Co., was charged with the seduction of a young girl a nurse in his family, who subsequently died from the effects of abortion, and that her mother, Mrs. Catherine R. Robinson, entered suit against Mr. Dameron, claiming $25,000 damages. Today Mrs. Robinson withdrew the suit and it was stricken from the dockst.

day Mrs. Robinson withdrew the suit and it was stricken from the docket.

The Grand Duke and suite have been very quiet since their arrival from the plains, and have devoted their time to private affairs. A special messenger arrived here from St. Petersburg with a budget of lettters, a day or so ago, and the party have been mainly engaged with their correspondence ever since then. They leave here next Monday night at 9 o'clock, for Louisville; thence it is understood they will visit the Mammoth Cave, and then proceed to Memphis by railroad, and embark on the steamer Great Republic for New Orleans.

GREAT BRITAIN.

day and the preceding one, rain fell in extraordinary quantities. The streams in the south part of England overflowed their banks, and whole villages were deluged. Great damage was done to property, especially in the valley of the Severn. The Thames is above its banks and the town of Windsor has suffered seriously. In London the unner portion of the city on the single the upper portion of the city on the river was flooded, and the loss of property and ineruptions to business are quite serious.

with the House amendments to the investigation resolutions providing to include the elections in 1867. It is sure that Snoddy and Scover will refuse to serve on the committee.

Col. Snoddy denounced the Leavenworth papers as being subsidized in the interest of Caldwell, and said that their reporters had misrepresented him.

The Senate passed unimportant bills and nerrly cleared its calender.

The House was in Committee of the Whole all the afternoon, and did a large amount of work, and disposed of about twenty minor bills.

There was not much debate except on unimportant details, till the bill to appropriate $50,000 to complete the State University was reached. This called out many speeches. The feeling expressed by nearly every member was in favor of the appropriation, if it could be done with safety in our present financial condition. Its passage was finally recommended, subject to amendment and debate; on third reading.

The Speaker appointed as the lovestigating Committee on the Senatorial alleged fraud, Mesars, W. H. Clark, J. J. Woods, Mr.

The Pressure Cure.

The Chicago Republican says: "Mr. Alexander Simpson, of Towanda, Ill., is dead. He was bilious, Mr. Alexander Simpson was, and he saw the following paragraph from the pen of Dr. Hall: "If a bill-out on the pen of Dr. Hall: "If a bill-out out of doors, between two broad boards, until he gets ravenously hungry."

Mr. Simpson followed this advice and caimly fell asleep with a broad board on top of him. Under ordinary circumstances there would have been no trouble; but there was a Fat Men's ball in the lager beer saloon nent door that day, and the two champion fat men get over the fence, and sat down with a jerk on top of Mr. Alexander Simpson's upper board, without knowing he was there.

It squelched the breath out of him at the first blow. And the fat men, you understand, they sat and sat there, and discussed politics, and the Alabama claims, and the Legal Tender act, and they kept on drinking laws after glass of beer, and getting heavier.